December 5, 2012

Dear Friends:

We wish you a blessed Christmas from the land of ice and snow...the ARCTIC!

Christmas in the Arctic....how the Inuit love it!! Regardless of freezing temperatures, or the raging north wind, they love to gather together to celebrate JESUS, for they know "HE IS THE REASON FOR THE SEASON."

How quickly the year 2012 is passing by, but we truly thank the Lord for many more trophies of grace in Inuit lives across the Arctic. Pastor Lynn and I have just completed visiting seven Arctic villages. Once again the Lord touched many lives.

Several Christians received a fresh anointing of the Holy Spirit, filling them with renewed strength and joy. Several others came back to Jesus and re-dedicated their lives to truly serve the Lord. One young man ran in after the service and said he could not resist the Holy Ghost any more. He was wonderfully set free!

There is definitely a fresh stirring of the Holy Spirit in the Arctic, and the Inuit are expecting great things from the Lord. In every village we saw many young people come to the services, and often they were the first ones to fill the altars. Young and old together they responded to call upon JESUS!

We are convinced this is truly God's time for Inuit youth so we are believing for three village-wide Youth Crusades to rescue the young generation from the hopelessness and devastation drugs, alcohol and sinful living brings.

OVER....

VISITING ARCTIC CHURCHES

All the pastors and leaders were especially happy to hear that prior to the Crusades, a youth-oriented bible teaching and training course will take place to better equip them to reach out to other needy youth at the Crusades, and in the follow-up program. "Youth reaching youth" for Jesus is very exciting!

Also, after the crusades, in March we are offering an adult Leadership Training Course in our Arctic Bible School. Already several have expressed a desire to attend. All these things tell us "It is GOD'S HOUR for the INUIT", but we do not have the luxury of unlimited time...what we do for Jesus we must do quickly!

If you desire to have a part in reaching needy Inuit, join us in earnest prayer for all these events, and if the Lord speaks to your heart to support this ministry financially, we will be very grateful.

Again may we wish you and your family a joyous Christmas, and a New Year overflowing with God's richest blessings.

Yours for the harvest,

Kayy
