December 5, 2013

Dear Friends:

We wish you a blessed Christmas from the land of ice and snow...THE ARCTIC!

Christmas in the Arctic...how the Inuit love it. !! Regardless of freezing temperatures, or the raging north wind, they love to gather together to celebrate JESUS, for they know, 'HE IS THE REASON FOR THE SEASON'

How quickly the year 2013 is passing by, but we truly thank the Lord for many more trophies of grace in Inuit lives across the Arctic.

We have just returned from an exciting time in the Arctic. As we travelled from the West to the East, beginning in Tuktoyaktuk, to Arviat on the shores of the Hudson Bay, we found a new wave of the Spirit of God is falling upon hungry hearts. Tuktoyaktuk is ripe for revival. Many were seeking God at the altar, and a fire is burning in the hearts of the youth.

Travelling with us to Yellowknife and Cambridge Bay was Pastor Hector Gimenez of Argentina, and Pastor Rauna May. In both communities, revival is stirring in the peoples' hearts. As Hector shared his visions of God's fire burning through North and South America, many were saved...thank you Jesus!

Baker Lake, Nunavut warmly welcomed the team...Lynn, Joe and myself. What a blessing to see the altars filled with young and old, calling on the Lord. There was great rejoicing in God's presence.

Even on Monday and Tuesday nights, the church in Arviat was filled to overflowing and extra chairs were set out. They were so hungry for more of God. Many young people responded to answer God's call for their lives.

It was a great thrill to visit Pastor Rhoda, who recently has been totally healed from Alzheimer's. She continues to thank the Lord for her miracle!

This picture of Rhoda shows her beautiful Inuit creations she has recently designed... and of course...her Bible in her hand!

The church in Rankin Inlet, is experiencing a fresh hunger...the altars filled with people seeking more of God, and many new converts.

We covet your prayers and financial support for the Bible School in Rankin Inlet, as many have expressed a desire to attend our Leadership Course in 2014. Airfares and food supplies are very costly in the Arctic.

We would so appreciate your financial assistance in sponsoring some of these students. I know you will do what you can do to help teach and train more Inuit leaders in the Arctic.

Together, we can see a great revival sweep the Barren lands!

May you and yours have a blessed CHRISTMAS and a NEW YEAR that overflows with God's choicest blessings!

Yours for the harvest,

Kayy
